WELCOME TO CIRCUIT DE BARCELONA-CATALUNYA

The wait is over. After an exciting start to the season, it's time for Circuit de Barcelona-Catalunya. The FORMULA 1 ARAMCO GRAN PREMIO DE ESPAÑA 2024 will take place from 21 to 23 June, turning the sports facilities into the host venue for the World Championship caravan for the 34th consecutive year. Moreover, drivers and teams will be landing on a track they know perfectly well, having tested on its asphalt on numerous occasions.

The relationship between the top level motorsport competition and Circuit de Barcelona-Catalunya started on 29 September 1991, only 19 days after the inauguration of the facilities, with Nigel Mansell winning the race, joined on the podium by Alain Prost and Riccardo Patrese. Sitges, Pedralbes and later Montjuïc were host to the Formula 1 World Championship until 1975.

Along these years, the Circuit has had several different race winners, most of them world champions: Nigel Mansell, Alain Prost, Damon Hill, Michael Schumacher, Jacques Villeneuve, Mika Häkkinen, Kimi Räikkönen, Fernando Alonso, Felipe Massa, Jenson Button, Mark Webber, Sebastian Vettel, Pastor Maldonado, Lewis Hamilton, Nico Rosberg and Max Verstappen.

After a streak of 10 different winners in 10 years, Lewis Hamilton broke the course of history at the Circuit. The Briton won the five last editions, in addition to the victory he achieved in 2014. This year, however, after what seems to be the end of the Mercedes era, the picture looks very different to that of recent years.

F1® hits the Circuit promising thrills at a key moment of the championship

Max Verstappen (Red Bull) is the favourite, although the last few races have shown that the teams are becoming more and more evenly matched and that victory will not come easily. Be that as it may, the statistics continue to smile on the Dutchman, who has traditionally done well at the Barcelona track, not least because it was here that he took home his first Formula 1 win in 2016, a success he repeated in 2022 and 2023. After three consecutive titles, Verstappen is heading towards his fourth world title at full speed, something that only Formula 1 greats such as Fangio, Schumacher, Vettel and Hamilton have achieved in the history of the sport.

However, there are more drivers in with a chance of glory at the Circuit, as is the case of local Carlos Sainz (Ferrari), who, despite missing the race in Saudi Arabia after undergoing surgery for appendicitis, is still in the fight for the championship and has made it clear that he is a strong candidate to reign victorious. In fact, this year he already knows what it is like to stand on top of the podium, a feat he achieved in Australia, just a few weeks after the operation. The Spaniard is in fourth position in the World Championship, just a few points behind his rivals, and comes to his home event ready to win again.

Charles Leclerc (Ferrari) is closest to Verstappen in the standings, 56 points behind. The Monegasque, who won the race in his home country, wants to get rid of the bitter taste of having to retire from the last race in Canada and show that the fight for the World Championship is still alive. Also not to be discounted is Lando Norris (McLaren), who is at the top of his sporting game after his first win in Miami, and is third in the standings, just seven points behind Leclerc.

We have not heard the last of Max Verstappen's teammate, Sergio Pérez, fifth, who after a bad start to the season in no way wants to make things easy for the reigning champion. Oscar Piastri (McLaren) and the two Mercedes drivers, George Russell and Lewis Hamilton, are just behind. All three will be looking to turn their solid pace into a long-awaited victory.

Fernando Alonso (Aston Martin), for his part, has once again shown that he knows how to make the most of his open-wheel cars' potential and that he can shine on any track in the World Championship. It's also a very neck-and-neck race at the Barcelona track for the constructors' championship, with Ferrari nipping at Red Bull's heels, 49 points behind, and McLaren closing the gap to 89 points behind the Austrian team.

Aron leads a very close F2®

The silver category of the World Championship has seen eight different winners in the ten races so far. Paul Aron (Hitech Pulse-Eight) is in first place and, despite not having graced the top of the podium this season, he has proved to be the most consistent and has had five podium finishes. However, he is only two points behind Isack Hadjar (Campos Racing), who stood victorious on the podium twice (Australia and Monaco). Not far behind is Zane Maloney (Robin Motorsport), 11 points behind Aron. The Barbadian started the season on a high note with two victories in Bahrain that put him in the lead, but in the last two rounds he has only managed to score a total of 7 points.

In F2®, much of the attention will be focused on Pepe Martí. Campos Racing's driver from Barcelona is the up-and-comer in Spanish motorsport and, following a few setbacks, he will be giving his all to make up for lost time and shine at Grand Prix in front of his fans in his home country, on a track he knows like the back of his hand.

Minì tops the F3® standings

In eight races (two per Grand Prix), eight drivers have taken a victory, which shows the extreme equality of Formula 3 and makes for what promises to be a very exciting weekend. The current leader is Gabriele Minì (Prema Racing), who is 4 points ahead of Luke Browning (Hitech Pulse-Eight). Other drivers with a clear chance of taking gold are Leonardo Fornaroli (Trident) and Dino Beganović (Prema Racing), third and fourth, 8 and 14 points behind Minì respectively.

In addition, the talented Catalan driver Mari Boya (Campos Racing) has shown us what he can do, something already seen during the tests held at the Circuit in April, where he was always among the fastest drivers. Despite occupying 11th place on the board, all indications are that he will soon be fighting for the top places. What better place to do it than on home turf?

Pulling dominates the F1® Academy

The all-female event debuted in 2023 and returns to the Catalan track with Abbi Pulling (Rodin Motorsport) as the outstanding leader. The British Alpine Academy driver has won three of the four F1® Academy races to date and has also made history in the other series she competes in, the F4 British Championship, where at Brands Hatch she became the first woman to win an F4 British Championship race. In the overall ranking, she is in fifth place.

Returning to the F1® Academy, Doriane Pin (Prema Racing), a Mercedes Junior Team driver, is second, 34 points behind Pulling, while teammate Maya Weug, third, is 48 points behind. In fourth place is Chloe Chambers (Campos Racing), 59 points behind the leader, and Bianca Bustamante (ART Grand Prix) is fifth at 60 points. Very close to the top 5 is Valencia's Nerea Martí (Campos Racing), who has already stood on the podium this season and wants to repeat the feat in Barcelona.

Multiple fun zones

Thrills galore at the FORMULA 1 ARAMCO GRAN PREMIO DE ESPAÑA 2024, both on and off the track. Circuit de Barcelona-Catalunya has put together an exciting programme of activities for all audiences.

Non-stop entertainment in the Fan Zone

Located in the public area behind the Main Grandstand, the Fan Zone has become a firm favourite among visitors, offering something for everyone. This year's area will feature eSports simulators, podium and driver selfie recreation areas, wind tunnel simulations and the chance to see an open-wheel car and championship trophy up close. There will also be virtual pit lane visits, where you can explore an F1 garage via augmented reality, as well as the pit stop challenge, where participants compete to change the tyres of an F1 car in the shortest possible time.

A stage will also be set up in the Fan Forum, where fans can see some of the main protagonists of the event (drivers and team managers) being interviewed on Friday and Saturday, and where the band God Save the Queen will also perform from 5:15 to 6:15 pm on Saturday.

One circuit, a variety of entertainment zones

Circuit de Barcelona-Catalunya will once again be offering fans the chance to enjoy an array of entertainment options and activities being hosted in numerous spaces set up around the circuit. Both the Green Zone and Kids Zone will be located in the Crater Forest area. The Green Zone will host a range of sustainability and environmentally-focused activities, as well as an artistic installation of mirror cubes. This time round, there will be a visual bonfire designed to raise awareness about fires and the fragility of nature during the summer months. The youngest members of the family will be able to take part in a painting workshop in the Kids Zone based on the recycled open-wheel car that was built last year, as well as to create new cars out of paper. They will also be able to get temporary tattoos and take part in traditional games made out of wood or recycled materials.

A stage will be set up in the Pelouse Joven area (Turn 4) where you will be able to see artists, such as DJ Coco, Eli Kapowski and DJ Kerito performing in front of a giant screen showing all the action on the track. There will also be a beauty corner where visitors can treat themselves to colourful hair extensions, printed tattoos, lucky charms and nail art.

Summer Fest is this year's new area, where visitors will be able to find out all about the local Sant Joan Festival, with a typical (but unlit) bonfire and information boards explaining the traditions that take place during this night of celebration in Catalonia, as well as many other games and activities: scalextric track, table football, Speed Game, Racing Emotions mural, etc.

Finally, Dutch DJ Admin Rick Jansen will entertain fans throughout the weekend in the Orange Zone, dedicated to the Dutch fans.

DJ Dolça Van Leeuwen will also take to the stage on Grand Prix Sunday, playing tracks from 12:50 to 1:00 and 1:30 to 2:00 pm ahead of the opening ceremony and anthems.

Also new for this year, the first visitors to arrive at the circuit on Sunday 23 June will be treated to a piece of coca de Sant Joan, a traditional Catalan dessert (while stocks last). Doors open at 6:00 am on Sunday, and early birds will also be able to watch the 2023 Formula 1 race on the screens around the circuit.

Pit Walk and Open Track, two unique experiences

As usual, the Pit Walk will take place from 5:30 to 7:30 pm on Thursday 20 June, giving fans access to the pit lane and perhaps even a glimpse of some of the World Championship drivers getting ready to compete. To ensure the smooth running of the activity, participation has been limited by means of free downloadable invitations from the Circuit's website, which are now sold out. No one without a free invitation will be able to access the Circuit or take part in the activity, despite having a ticket for the GP.

The Open Track will bring the event to a close, during which visitors will have the chance to head out onto the track after the Formula 1 race, which starts at 3:00 pm on Sunday 23 June. This is an incredible opportunity to experience the podium ceremony, with spectators able to walk out onto the Main Straight, as well as any other part of the circuit. Several access points will be made available for this purpose in the public areas.

Conscience, commitment and coherence with the environment

The Circuit will promote a wide range of actions framed within its 3C management philosophy in sustainability, integrating the social, economic and environmental aspects. Under the slogan "Driving for a better future" with conscience, commitment and coherence, in order to contribute to the Sustainable Development Goals of the UN Agenda 2030.

In addition, this year, as a novelty, two projects focused on energy self-sufficiency and on the supply of drinking water will be promoted.

The promoted actions include the use of 100% renewable energy, food donations, the use of okm catering products, waste management, sustainable forestry in the surroundings of the Circuit, and the use of circular economy to fund it by means of other sustainable actions, among many others.
