GRAN PREMIO DE BARCELONA-CATALUNYA

2026

WELCOME TO CIRCUIT DE BARCELONA-CATALUNYA

The FORMULA 1 MSC CRUISES GRAN PREMIO DE BARCELONA-CATALUNYA 2026 is already revving its engines. From 12 to 14 June, the Circuit de Barcelona-Catalunya will host the seventh round of the 2026 FIA Formula One World Championship season. This is a crucial stage of the championship, with battles still to be decided in both the title race and the midfield.

Formula 1 arrives in Catalonia with Kimi Antonelli (Mercedes) as the clear championship leader, having achieved five consecutive victories and opened up a significant lead in the standings. The Italian driver cemented his position with another masterclass in Monaco. However, the World Championship's visit to the Circuit de Barcelona-Catalunya will present a very different challenge for teams and drivers, as it is one of the most comprehensive and demanding circuits on the calendar.

While Antonelli has undoubtedly been the standout figure of the season so far, there are plenty of other points of interest in the championship. Lewis Hamilton is currently second in the World Championship standings in his second season with Ferrari. Meanwhile, George Russell, who was one of Antonelli's main rivals at the start of the year, arrives in Barcelona after a challenging race in Monaco, which caused him to lose ground in the standings. Just two points separate these two heavyweights.

In the constructors' championship, Ferrari has established itself as Mercedes' main challenger at the start of the season. Hamilton and Charles Leclerc have demonstrated remarkable consistency, enabling the Scuderia to remain competitive, although they still lack the consistency required to challenge Antonelli's dominance. Leclerc, for his part, trails the leading group in fourth place.

McLaren also aims to be one of the protagonists of the weekend. After clinching the drivers' and constructors' titles in 2025, the British team is looking to catch up with Oscar Piastri and Lando Norris. The two drivers have produced mixed results in the first races of the year, alternating between standout performances and below-expectation results. The Woking-based team are in fifth and sixth place respectively.

Meanwhile, Red Bull finds itself in an unusual situation. Max Verstappen has yet to regain the consistency that allowed him to dominate in previous seasons, and he arrives in Catalonia needing a strong result to put him back in contention for the top spots. Meanwhile, young talents such as Isack Hadjar have become rising stars in the championship thanks to their consistently strong performances.

The home crowd will once again have two reasons to cheer on Fernando Alonso and Carlos Sainz. The driver from Asturias continues to be one of the leading figures on the grid and will look to convert the support from the grandstands into momentum to keep scoring points, which he has not managed to do so far this year. Sainz, for his part, is heading into his home race aiming to put the disappointment of retiring in Monaco behind him, and to regain his confidence in a season that still offers him plenty of opportunities to climb the standings.

More excitement with F2™ and F3™

The 2026 FORMULA 1 MSC CRUISES BARCELONA-CATALUNYA GRAND PRIX sporting programme will feature the FIA Formula 2 and FIA Formula 3 championships, which are entering the Catalan round at a pivotal point in the season.

The F2 championship has got off to a very close start. Gabriele Mini (Campos Racing) is currently top of the leaderboard, with Nikola Tsolov (ART Grand Prix) and Martinus Stenshorne (Hitech TGR) close behind. Local hero Mari Boya, meanwhile, is looking to make his mark on a circuit he knows inside out and bounce back from a difficult start to the championship. Meanwhile, the Campos Racing team arrives at their home race as one of the category's leading contenders.

FIA Formula 3 will hold special appeal for local fans thanks to Barcelona-born Bruno Del Pino (Van Amersfoort Racing). The Catalan driver is second in the overall standings after securing a commendable podium finish in Monaco. He is eight points behind the leader, Ugo Ugochukwu (Campos Racing), and one point ahead of Britain's Freddie Slater (Trident), who is also a title contender. Support from the stands could give one of Spanish motorsport's emerging talents an extra boost.

The Porsche Mobil 1 Supercup rounds off the programme

The FORMULA 1 MSC CRUISES GRAN PREMIO DE BARCELONA-CATALUNYA 2026 will also feature the Porsche Mobil 1 Supercup, one of the world's leading single-make series. The series will arrive at the Circuit for the second round of the season, following its season opener in Monaco last weekend.

Germany's Theo Oeverhaus (Martinet by Alméras) arrives in Barcelona as the championship leader, having secured an impressive victory on the streets of the Principality. Andrea Bristot (Dinamic Motorsport) and Gustav Burton (Team Proton Huber Competition) are currently in second and third place respectively, but the standings are still in their early stages. Additionally, the Catalan round will feature a special guest appearance by 1997 Formula 1 World Champion Jacques Villeneuve.

PROPOSALS FOR THE PUBLIC

The Fan Zone expands its offerings

The traditional Fan Zone, located in the public area behind the Main Grandstand, is the main attraction at each edition, with activities for all tastes. For the occasion, the world championship will have an additional Fan Zone next to Grandstand S. This will allow the F1 activities to reach different parts of the track.

This year's event will feature eSports simulators, recreations of a podium and selfies with the drivers, wind tunnel simulations and the opportunity to see a single-seater car and a championship trophy. In addition, the pit stop challenge -a challenge featuring LED lights- will be back.

Furthermore, a stage will be set up in each Fan Zone, offering a different line-up of music, performances and entertainment. In addition, some of the event's key figures (drivers and team principals) will be interviewed on Friday and Saturday in front of any fans who wish to attend, in what is known as the Fan Forum.

2026

The main stage (behind the Main Grandstand) will host artists such as DJ Lzttto, DJ Janse, DJ Gee Beat and Alan Walker himself (on Saturday at 5.20 p.m.). On Sunday, Pedro de la Rosa will make an appearance at 10.55 am, whilst Sidral Brass, Marss and Ale Daunis will also be performing. The other stage will feature Los Dalton, Alan Walker, Rumba Explosion and the Sant Andreu Jazz Band.

One circuit, different entertainment areas

Circuit de Barcelona-Catalunya continues to offer a wide range of spaces throughout the circuit where there will be endless entertainment.

The Green Zone and the Kids Zone will be located in the area of the Crater Forest. In the first area, activities will focus on sustainability and the environment. In the second area, visitors will be able to see a life-size white single-seater car installation, which will serve as a canvas for children to stick small pieces of paper onto, imitating Gaudí's characteristic style on the centenary of his death. Children will also find wooden games, archery and various workshops such as face painting and bubble-blowing.

At the former Heliport (green area behind Grandstand B) there will be another hub of activities for the whole family, with photo booths, face-painting corners and games such as table football and skittles.

This year, the Pelouse Jove (Turn 4 area) is once again being brought to life by Santander. There will be a giant screen to follow the action on the track, live music, a photocall and more.

In addition, ZeBrass, a marching band from Vilanova i la Geltrú, will be setting the pace along the entire route with their travelling performance.

Pit Walk and Open Track, two unique experiences

As usual, on Thursday 29 May from 5:45 p.m. to 5:15 p.m., the Pit Walk will take place, allowing fans to access the pit lane, where some World Championship drivers are expected to be present. To ensure the smooth running of the activity, attendance will be limited by free invitations available to download from the Circuit website, which are already sold out. Those without a free invitation will not be able to access the Circuit or participate in the activity, even if they have a ticket for the GP. Buyers with the Pit Walk Experience included will have priority access half an hour earlier.

The grand finale will be the Open Track, during which attendees will have the chance to access the track once the Formula 1 race has finished, which will take place on Sunday 14 June at 3:00 p.m. This is a great opportunity to take part in the podium ceremony, as you will be able to enter the main straight and any other point on the track. Several access points will be set up in the public areas for this purpose. MonDJ will be setting the beat for the Open Track from the stage with his live performance.

A SUSTAINABLE EVENT

The commitment to sustainability is once again a fundamental pillar for the Catalan circuit, which aims to raise public awareness and encourage people to care for and respect the environment.

To this end, the Barcelona circuit will have its usual "Sustainability Meeting Points", located in the Crater Forest area and behind Grandstand G, open on Saturday and Sunday from 8:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Under the 3C Management philosophy (Conscience, Commitment and Consistency), which integrates social, economic and environmental aspects, the Circuit works to achieve responsible activity in its mission 'Driving for a better future', within the framework of the United Nations 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development Goals.

As in previous years, a wide range of activities will take place at the Barcelona track as part of an ISO 20121-certified F1 Grand Prix, including the following:

- Use of 100% certified renewable energy to support the electricity supply.
- Up to 40% energy self-sufficiency through photovoltaic solar panels.
- Rental of low-emission HVO generators in the paddock.
- Offering locally sourced and organic food at the catering outlets.
- Sunscreen dispensers and shaded areas in public zones.
- Promotion of sustainable mobility with electric vehicle charging points within the facilities, and use of electric vehicles by suppliers and Circuit staff for internal mobility.
- Zero waste commitment:
 - Reusable cups in bars and water fountains (in public areas and in the paddock).
 - Use of the circular economy by reusing tyres and drums.
 - Recovery and recycling of waste from all waste fractions.
 - Donation of surplus food by the teams to the local social organisation El Xiprer.
- Improvement of biodiversity in the Educational Crater Forest through sustainable forest management. On Grand-Prix-Saturday and Sunday, between 9:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m., there will be a biodiversity workshop for children in the Kids Zone.
- Installation of two Purple Points in the public areas.
- Social involvement through activities such as an educational visit to a mechanics school, with instruction and advice from F1 professionals for the students.

Mobility inside and outside the Circuit

This year, electric vehicles from the Red Cross will facilitate the movement of people with reduced mobility within the venue, accompanied by volunteers. In addition, there will be a special public transport schedule to ensure quick, comfortable and sustainable travel to the Circuit de Barcelona-Catalunya, either by train (Rodalies de Catalunya) or by bus (Sagalés). The Circuit also offers a free bus service from Montmeló and Parets train stations.

Attendees will find several QR codes distributed throughout the public areas to access detailed information on sustainability. In the Main Grandstand, for example, information on energy self-sufficiency will be available, and details on food donations will be provided at Aramark's catering points.

In this way, the Circuit encourages everyone involved in the event to contribute to the actions to ensure the sustainable management of the FORMULA 1 MSC CRUISES GRAN PREMIO DE BARCELONA-CATALUNYA 2026.
